INTRODUCTION

If the job could talk, it would clearly define the knowledge, hard skills, people skills, behavior and culture needed for superior performance. Your unbiased input regarding the specific requirements of the job in question has been applied to the TriMetrix job benchmarking process. The result is an evaluative report that analyzes a total of 37 separate areas in Sections 1 through 3. Additional feedback on each area is presented in Sections 4 through 6. Suggested interview questions that pertain to each area complete this report in Sections 7 through 9.

SECTION 1: JOB ATTRIBUTES HIERARCHY (23 AREAS)

This section presents 23 key job attributes and quantifies their importance to this specific job. Each job has a unique ranking of attributes, reflecting different levels of capacities required by different jobs for superior performance.

SECTION 2: REWARDS/CULTURE HIERARCHY (6 AREAS)

This section clearly identifies the rewards/culture of the job, which defines its sources of motivation. It clarifies "why" and "in what kind of environment" this job will produce success.

SECTION 3: BEHAVIORAL HIERARCHY (8 AREAS)

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

Below are suggested interview questions on each of the top seven attributes. Use these as a guide to write questions that could be more job-specific. Once the list is completed, assure that all candidates respond to the same questions.

1. SELF MANAGEMENT: The ability to prioritize and complete tasks in order to deliver desired outcomes within allotted time frames.
 - Give me a specific example of a project that you were responsible for organizing from beginning to end. How did you go about it? How did you deal with changes that arose? How did you ensure that the project stayed on track? What was the final outcome? What did you learn from this experience?
 - Have you ever faced a day in which you just couldn't get everything done that you had planned? How did you handle it? (If the position sometimes requires extra hours, simply ask the candidate if they are able to fulfill that requirement).
 - Do you consider yourself to be a good time manager? Share with me the planning system you use and show me how you use it.
 - We have all had times where it was necessary to balance work and personal or family time. Give me an example of a time when you had too many things to do in both areas of your life and describe how you went about prioritizing your time.
 - How much time do you spend getting organized on a daily basis? When do you do it? What impact do you think this habit has on your results?
 - What is the difference between activity and results? How do you personally define this difference?

2. RESULTS ORIENTATION: The ability to identify actions necessary to complete tasks and obtain results.
 - Give me an example of one thing in your life that you have worked on for what you consider to be a very long time with no distraction or break. What did you dislike most about that? How successful were you in completing it? How long a time did you work it?
 - Give me an example of a time when someone didn't follow-through on a commitment to you. What did you do about it? How do you make sure that others around you follow through on their commitments? How do you ensure that you do?
 - Give me an example of a project that you have completed and the outcome. Please give me the most essential components of that project that played the biggest role in its completion.
 - Describe a plan you've developed for something you are currently working on. What are the most essential components of that plan...the things that must be accomplished or the plan won't work?
 - Tell me about a time when you missed a deadline. What were the consequences? What did you do differently the next time you faced a deadline?
 - Have results ever been less than stellar for a project you've worked on? What caused the results to be less than great? How did it happen?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

3. GOAL ACHIEVEMENT: The overall ability to set, pursue and attain achievable goals, regardless of obstacles or circumstances.
 - Describe the most complex project you ever worked on. How did you establish action steps and milestones for that project? What was the most difficult part of that project for you?
 - Share with me 5 goals you have previously set for yourself in in your career. How many have you accomplished? What have been the reasons for your successful completion of them? How about those you have not completed?
 - Give me an example of a time when you really procrastinated before getting started on something. How did you get started? Did you complete that goal or project?
 - Is there one thing in your life that you have accomplished that gives you the most satisfaction? What is it? How tough was it to accomplish?
 - What is the one thing in your life that you have not been able to accomplish or complete that gives you the most frustration? Why didn't you complete it? How could you complete it?
 - Give me an example of a time when you were really able to focus your efforts on a single goal. How were you able to do that?

4. PROBLEM SOLVING: The ability to identify key components of a problem to formulate a solution or solutions.
 - Give me an example of a difficult problem you solved at work and describe how you went about solving it.
 - What problem have you solved in your career that has provided you the greatest sense of fulfillment?
